Tide of Battle Apparently Turns Against Kaiser in Both the East and West

W. McNamara Will Not Candidate For Mayor Next Year, He Declares

Public Statement Shortly in Which Will be Some Fact Regarding Unseating—Asks People to Vote for Free and Unbiased Ballot For New Election on December 14—Cost Him $19,000 for Legitimate Election Expenses Last Fall, and He Considers Concentration of Attention on Mayoralty Fight Weakness in Present System.

"I shall not be a candidate for re-election as mayor, either at the election which will doubtless have to follow as the result of my unseating, or for re-election to the office of mayor next year."

Mr. McNamara further stated that he would make a statement to the public shortly in which he would seek to present a few pertinent facts at this time in connection with his unseating.

During the course of his address in behalf of elective commission government for Edmonton, Mr. McNamara declared the concentration of nearly all public attention on the mayoralty fight each year to be a serious weakness of Edmonton's present form of government. Furthermore, he said, the necessity for expending a large sum of money to be elected mayor of Edmonton is a most deplorable condition, and a condition that cannot be tolerated in the city much longer. He stated frankly, that his election campaign last fall cost him approximately $19,000, and that there was not one cent of that money which was not expended in what has always been considered to be a legitimate and proper manner.

"After a man has expended an enormous amount of money to be elected mayor for one short twelve months," continued Mr. McNamara, "I tell you, the temptation is strong to, in some manner, get back that money which has been expended. I repeat that the temptation is great for a man to be reimbursed for his expenditure; he need not necessarily take the amount directly from the city. Treasury the temptation does not come that way; but you must remember that the city of Edmonton is doing an enormous amount of business, and the opportunities afforded a man in a position as mayor are large, whether in connection with the awarding of large contracts, or the extension of public utilities where they are not warranted—such as on Athabasca to 52nd st.

One year ago, when coming before the people of Edmonton, asking their franchise on one plank only, I stated that I was thoroughly satisfied that Edmonton must have a change in the form of government, and that the most desirable form of government that could be adopted, was government by elective commission. After having served nearly a year in the office of mayor, I am more thoroughly convinced of that fact than I was a short time ago. I am more an elective commission government man today than I was then. I earnestly request that you give the elective commission government new charter your most serious consideration, and cast a free and unbiased ballot upon the question of government upon December 14.

Mr. McNamara has vacated his office in the city hall and has taken up residence at his Westlake farm for a time. City Clerk Cook has received official notice from the supreme court to the effect that the office of mayor and alderman are vacant. In leaving the city hall the mayor visited a number of officers and his only statement was, "Well goodbye, I won't be."

Other speakers at the Eastwood meeting last evening when the elective commission charter was presented, were C. Stevens, Prof. W. H. Alexander and James East, presenting the elective commission charter, and advising the aldermanic ward system of government. The elective commission government charter committee will hold a meeting in the 12th Park school house this evening.

Six-Year-Old Buried in Fire

Brinsford, Alta., Oct. 26.—The six-year-old son of J. G. Stevens, who was burned to death and a three-year-old daughter probably fatally burned, were destroyed in the fire which destroyed the Stevens home east of town last evening.

Turks Destroy the Property of Americans in Bombardment of Odessa, States Report

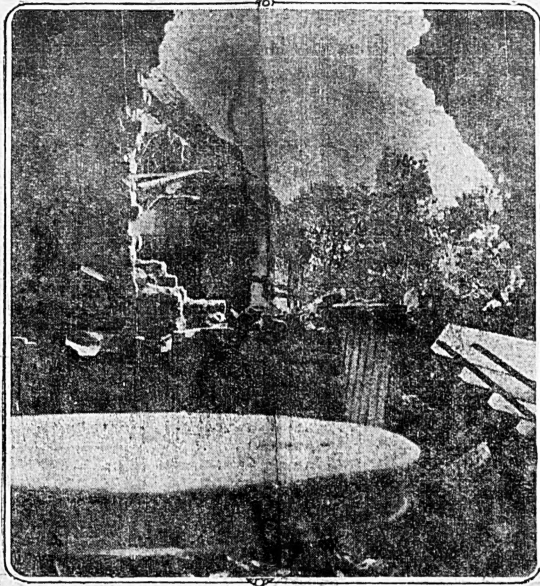

Washington, Oct. 30.—Acting Secretary Lansing today announced the receipt of a telegram from the American charge d'affaires at Petrograd saying Odessa has been bombarded and some American property destroyed.

The despatch from Charge Wilson transmitted a message from the American consul at Odessa, who said he would send a full report later on the extent of the American property damaged.

He did not say by whom the bombardment was done, but it is presumed here that it was done by the Turks.

Charge Wilson's despatch was dated "Petrograd, Oct. 29, 7 p.m.," and spoke of the bombardment having taken place "last night," evidently Wednesday.

GERMANS MAY NOW ATTEMPT ATTACK FROM UPPER ALSACE SINCE RIGHT WING DEFEATED

Paris, Oct. 30.—Paris regards the situation this morning in Flanders, as highly favorable. In official circles there prevails an air of satisfaction regarding the impression created by the official communications. The second visit of President Poincaré to the battle front is regarded as a good sign and is taken to prefigure important developments.

Military critics regard the prolonged assaults of the Germans along the Yser as having failed and they expect that the enemy, following their custom, will now make another effort elsewhere. The great activity in Upper Alsace during the last few days suggests an attack from that quarter.

It is declared here that all Germans wounded at St. Louis have been taken across the Rhine and that all applications for safe conduct in Upper Alsace have been refused. In spite of the general hopelessness prevailing in the French capital, the deadlock in the extended battle line in France and Belgium continues today, according to all the information regarding the great battle raging between the Germans and the allies.

The latest French official communication, brief as it is, declares similarity to place here and there, and reports. While fighting appears to be somewhat more general it is not so fierce or continuous as it was after the battle line in the northeast extended into Belgium along the Yser and to the coast. Evidently both sides are recuperating as much as possible from the strain of these tremendous efforts and are their strengthening their lines with fresh troops.

No one here doubts that the Germans will shortly renew their efforts to take the channel ports but there is every confidence that the allies, as heretofore, will check them.

Winter has made its presence felt all along the battle line. The last few nights have been very cold and in the Vosges a heavy snow has fallen stopping the German operations there.

On the rest of the line the cold has been followed by the fighting, which, however, is of a desultory character because of the exhaustion of the troops.

TURKEY IN EUROPE WILL SOON BE BUT MEMORY—"TIMES"

This and Prussian Militarism, it declares, two Chief Menaces to Peace.

TURKISH CRUISERS ARE BOMBARDING THEODOSIA Make War on Russian All Along Line, Though No Formal Declaration Yet.

London, Oct. 28.—The Times editorially states that the allies are already ready for Turkey and have been ready for her for a long time. "All preparations for the Turkish advance have been made by Great Britain in Egypt along the banks of the Suez canal and in the peninsula of Sinai, Greece, too, is ready, and more than ready, as Turkey may soon discover. By her foolish yielding to the instigations of Germany, Turkey has pronounced her doom. The Ottoman empire in Europe will soon be merely a memory."

"Since the Turks have resolved upon their own destruction, we do not regret their appearance in the ranks of combatants. Their acts of war mean that the German can place Turkey in Europe will be rid of two factors which for more than 40 years have been the chief dangers to the peace of the old world. We shall get rid of Prussian militarism, and we shall simultaneously get rid of the Turks in Europe. The people of Syria, of Arabia and of Mesopotamia will also be freed from the blighting influence of the Turks and the Ottoman race will be relegated to the obscure valleys of Asia Minor, from which it alone time ago emerged."

"These may sound like large assumptions, but they will be proved by events. The world will never submit to the extension of Prussian domination, but the appearance of Prussian-Turkish domination in Europe, near and middle east would more than mean the extinction of civilization as we have known it. The allies will not watch their swords until both ambitions have been crushed beyond any risk of reappearance."

Tokio, Oct. 30.—11:30 a.m.—The Russian embassy here announces that Turkey has opened war on Russia. London, Oct. 30.—2:21 a.m.—A despatch to the Times from Petrograd says it was the former German cruiser Breslau, which now flies the German flag, that shelled Theodosia.

BATTLE FINALLY SEEMS TO BE DECISIVELY IN FAVOR OF ALLIES IN WESTERN AREA

Sluices are Opened in Yser Canal and Thousands of Germans Swallowed Up—Progress Made by French and British All Along the Line—As Result of Turkey's Participation War is Now Waged Practically Across Europe—In East Russia Continues to Advance and Allies Prepared for Ottoman Empire's Entrance.

London, Oct. 30.—A despatch from the correspondent of the Reuters Telegram company at Paris, says:

"The news today is excellent. I am able to state on the best authority that the efforts of the allies are being crowned with success."

"In consequence of the opening of the sluices of the Yser canal, thousands of Germans were caught. Those who escaped drowning were harassed by the artillery."

"Some points of extra strategic importance have been occupied by the left wing of the allies, while along practically the whole rest of the front as far as the French eastern frontier, the allies' progress continues."

"The German losses are terrific."

London, Oct. 30.—"The battle area, as a result of the entry of the Ottoman empire into the international struggle, now stretches in an almost unbroken diagonal line across Europe and, as Turkey's adherence to the Teutonic side of the quarrel can hardly be the last new factor in the war which gradually is engulfing the eastern hemisphere, it may result from the Atlantic to the Indian ocean."

Greece, Roumania and Bulgaria are practically certain to be drawn into the conflict, which is already engaging ten millions and the ultimate inclusion of Italy and Persia, with perhaps the Asiatic lands to the eastward of the last, which is only a question of time, in London as scarcely less probable."

Hot on the heels of the Turkish offensive movement against parts of the Black sea has followed what amounts to a declaration of war by Emperor Nicholas, in the form of instructions to his ambassador and his consuls to quit Turkey forthwith and this will be followed promptly by similar action on the part of each of the allied governments. The appearance of the allied fleet off the Dardanelles will be a natural sequence. The intervention of the allies, since its persistent disregard of the warnings of Great Britain, France and Russia, has been anticipated and is said to have been thoroughly prepared for. It is accepted in London as another proof of the German need to endeavor to draw off Russian forces from Poland and Galicia. The Muscovites, however, have a large and growing reserve, and is quite capable of attending to the Turkish armies now in the field.

These latter apparently are making steady progress towards the entrenched positions on the river Warthe, Russian Poland, where the Germans undoubtedly will make another attempt to reach the enemy. The Russian reconquest of Voznesensk in Bukovina is considered important, as this town is a railroad junction and its possession frees another railway line to Loda, which again is in possession of the Russian troops.

Rumors are again current in London today that, Hungary, weary of a war which she is not yet ready to gain, will welcome a chance to quit.

RUSSIANS DIVIDE OPPOSING FORCES WHICH FALL BACK AGAINST GERMAN BATTERIES

After Four Days of Severe Fighting Teuton Line Breaks and Retreats.

Petrograd, Oct. 30.—The Russians have won another great victory, which marks in all probability the ultimate stages of the struggle between the Slav and the Teuton. The German and German-Austrian armies, operating from the northernmost position, in about the same latitude as Warsaw, down to well south of the river Vistula, have been broken to two. The northern part, which was defeated at the battle of the river Grand Duke Nicholas has inflicted a defeat upon the invaders, who are in full retreat, heading off between the two main groups of armies equal to one day's march.

This victory portends the defeat of the group of armies north of the river Vistula since there will now have the Russians on their right flank and indeed, Russian cavalry and horse guns are probably already in the right rear of the northern forces. The victory has been won by four days of the severest fighting on a front extending from Bialystok on the river Vistula west of the Vistula to the river Dnieper, and Polotsk, to Janowiec, which is on the left bank of the Vistula, opposite the village of Krasnopol. The total length of this front is 42 miles.

An Entire German Regiment Is Destroyed By French Machine Guns in Argonne

Paris, Oct. 30.—One east Wurtemberg regiment, numbering 1,000, is reported to have been destroyed north of the Châlons road, in the Argonne region. The Germans were retreating after an unsuccessful attack when they decided to return and try to surprise the pursuing French.

The Germans marched two by two through a rocky mountain pass and had reached within a few hundred yards of the French camp when a French soldier gave the alarm. His comrades rushed forward and heaped rocks at the end of the path and poured a murderous fire at the Germans, who endeavored to make the escape from the defile but found the passage blocked with rocks. The Germans then hoisted a white flag and when a French officer with a small party advanced to receive the surrender the Germans reopened fire, killing 10 of the French. The infuriated French troops then opened a terrific fire with their machine guns and killed the entire German column.

The Gay World

Mr. Jim Ryan, who is at present in Ottawa, leaves for Montreal very shortly, going on to New York and other eastern points before his return home in the middle of November.

The Hon. A. L. Sifton, Mrs. Sifton and Mrs. Clark Dennis leave on Tuesday for New York, the premier having accepted an invitation to speak at the Canadian club banquet to take place in the American metropolis November 10. Miss Penelope Davies, well known Edmonton artist is to sing at the affair.

That the inauguration of the "First Aids to the Injured" classes in Edmonton some time ago was more than mere spasmodic impulse is instanced by the continuation of the venture. On Tuesday night Dr. W. D. Ferris opened a second course of lectures in Oliver school, where a class of twenty-eight has been enrolled. On Wednesday eight thirty-two students sat in the Y.W.C.A. Third street, quite awed with the literal sight and handling of skull and crossbones, and other bones of the human anatomy, used in practical demonstration by Dr. W. D. Lailley in his talk. The work seems to have taken root in Edmonton. Doubtless many efficient "first aiders" will be off shoots of the work.

The first recital of the Women's Musical club is booked for Saturday week, Nov. 7, in the lecture room of First Presbyterian church. The chorus has already begun its practice under the direction of Mr. Vernon Harford.

Mrs. Goddard, with Master Garth and Fraser left yesterday for Winnipeg to visit her mother, Mrs. Lumsden.

The examination of Grishbach class, "First Aid to the Injured" takes place on Monday night, Nov. 2, at eight o'clock in the Y.W.C.A. Third street. Dr. Mosher will be the examiner. Members are requested to bring their bandages.

Mrs. H. W. Lockwood, West Port, Ont., whose interests are extensively vested in Edmonton, has returned to week in Edmonton, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Webster, Victoria avenue.

At the initial meeting of the season held in Athabasca hall on Wednesday night the Dramatic society of the University of Alberta had a real treat in the Shakespearean lecture delivered to them by Dr. Gordon, professor of English.

An interesting discussion on points submitted followed, bringing the meeting to a close.

The regular monthly meeting of the Newwood W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. McLeann, 342 Lorne street, with an attendance of twenty members. Twelve new members were obtained through the mothers' meeting held in Newwood church on October 9th. Mrs. Eife gave a report of the provincial convention held in Wetaskiwin. Mrs. Taylor's report is to be given at the next meeting. After an excellent piano solo by Mrs. Cummings the meeting was closed with prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McKernan, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

The Hon. A. L. Sifton, who left for Calgary yesterday returned to town on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Galloway, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Galloway for a time, returned to Brandon yesterday.

The "District School" will be presented under the auspices of the Girls' Bible class in the school room of Robertson Presbyterian church, Friday evening at 8 p.m. See the Honey's notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edgar Edwards of 1291, 33rd street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Winifred Ethel, to J. W. H. McLaughlin, of Mannville, the marriage to take place November 20, at the home of the bride's parents.

The delightful dance given in the Blue Moon on Wednesday night by one of the bachelors was charming and bright. Turner's orchestra, furnishing the music. Once again, "It's a long way to Tipperary." was the march of the hour. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. McHaffie, Mrs. Dennis, Miss Lovers (Calgary), Miss Elaine Dawson, Miss Helen Dawson, Miss Babe Wilkins, Miss Marjorie Campbell, Miss Maude McLeann, Miss Marcella Lafferty, Miss Gertrude Edmonson, Miss Lillian Hardisty, Miss Nedra Mercer, Miss Marion Harries, Miss Beatrice Parton, Miss Jessie Scott, Miss Lyle Scott, Miss Morgan, Miss Jeanne Turnbull, Miss Alice Campbell, Miss Frances Kenney, Mr. Gordon Maguire, Mr. Gordon Powrie, Mr. Laurie Jellett, Mr. Jack Cameron, Mr. Jimmie Garrod, Mr. How, Mr. J. D. Wallbridge, Mr. Freddy McKenney, Dr. Mills, Dr. Gunn, Mr. Jamieson, Mr. R. H. McPherson, Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Frank Cochrane, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Flannigan, Mr. Malone, Mr. Holland, Mr. Lorne Campbell, Mr. Calder, Mr. Norman Franks, Mr. W. Mustard.

Mrs. J. J. Galloway, Athabasca avenue entertained at the tea hour Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Andrew Galloway, Brandon.

In the drawing-room, pink roses were conspicuous in the decorative scheme. In the center of the tea table stood a crystal and silver vase of Jacquemont roses. Mrs. D. MacCallum, Mrs. W. H. Sutherland were vis-a-vis. Assisting were Miss Evelyn Murray, Miss Burns, Miss Alice McLean and Miss Jessie and Anna Belcher.

The guests included Mrs. Howard Douglas, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Hyndman, Mr. Mrs. A. J. McLean, Mrs. H. B. Wells, Mrs. Dora, Mrs. MacCallum, Mrs. Chadwick, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Glen Chadwick, Mrs. H. H. Cooper, Mrs. MacCallum, Mrs. M. J. J. MacCallum, Mrs. Ambrose Dickins, Mrs. MacCallum, Mrs. Duncan Smith, Mrs. MacCallum.

ALDERMAN G. H. MAY ON COMMISSION GOVERNMENT

In the October Issue of the Canadian Municipal Journal Appears an Article on "Elective Commission Government," by Alderman May of Edmonton, as Follows:

While the subject of this paper is "Government by Elective Commission" I would not presume to attempt to present a discussion upon the merits or demerits of that subject within a thousand words. My purpose is to offer some of the reasons why the plan of one or two of the causes demand government by elective commission, and show wherein the business plan of municipal government promises to meet this demand.

This day has arrived when the same economy and efficiency must characterize public business as is demanded by private enterprise. No longer are loose and extravagant methods to be tolerated. The public servant is to be held to the results he produces. I am known by the results of his work. The personality of the individual have run their course. Today is the beginning of the era when by their works ye shall know them. It is with us the standard of results accomplished that shall measure the public man of the future. It is to be measured, not upon the fluency of his tongue at election time.

This radical change in the horizon of municipal affairs political is due to the public recognition of the necessity of a maximum of administrative efficiency, even at the expense of legislative expediency. This demand, in turn, is brought about by the vast number of municipalities springing up throughout the west and middle west which are retaining unto themselves their public utilities, also by the older cities refusing to renew expiring exclusive franchises. The era of community ownership of public utilities is here. A common characteristic of every new city charter on this entire continent today is the provision making the granting of any exclusive franchise prohibitive. This is done with community ownership of such utilities as the end in view.

Because of political, legal and technical intricacies, cities are finding it difficult to oust the private interests utilizing public thoroughfares for their own gain. The vast amount of money demanded by the private companies for the birthrights of the public has led to some understanding into the real value of such franchises. These conditions are retarding the progress of community ownership, but by no means is the tide being turned. The ultimate end is apparent. This being true, a new aspect is given municipal administration.

This evolution of municipal business, progressing toward community ownership of public utilities demands stronger administrative machinery. If the extreme of legislative functions. With the initiative, and the referendum, the legislative end of any municipality will not get very far astray.

For the purpose of strengthening the administrative end of the municipal machinery many cities have turned to government by elective commission, coupled with the initiative, referendum and recall. The city of Edmonton is looking in that direction now.

The capital of Alberta owns and operates all her public utilities. She has the experience of the northwest Metropolis provides an enlightening study for students of municipal affairs. With public ownership of all utilities in a city growing by leaps and bounds through development of an empire tributary; in a city where the unearned increment has many times made poor men rich overnight; in a city where the administration of the public affairs is removed from the direct control of the people, and their properties are subjected to exploitation for private gain; in such a city and under such conditions, the common people need exercise as much, or more, vigilance, and wage as continuous a battle as do the people in cities which are corporate cities. The big men and women of today, are fighting the battle in our American and Canadian cities against the private company monopoly, are wholly in error in the belief that with public ownership the guards may be relaxed. With the ousting of private company crafters, there comes a new variety wearing the cloak of respectability and exhibiting the shroud bearing the insidious "Our Best Business and Professional Men, and Most Representative Citizens." This breed of crafters, so clothed, is dangerous until unmasked. Their fangs drop off with their masks, but the unmasking is oftentimes some job. They seek public office to exploit your public utilities, or seek to wreck them in the hope of getting in on the spoils. They never appear without wearing a mask of some righteous design. The people of a city owning and operating their utilities need keep close, and in as direct, touch and control of the administration of their properties as it is possible.

Government by elective commission eliminates the city council from between the people and their business administration. Government by elective commission, coupled with the initiative referendum and the recall appeals to me because it gives the people direct control of their own affairs. I have no patience with the man who says the people do not know what is best for them. If they do not, it is time they were learning. The best way I know of learning to do a thing is to get to doing it.

It is certain that the people will do the best they know. You cannot say as much if they entrust to some individual to do their thinking for them. A coterie of private interests in the city of Edmonton last December appeared before Justice Harvey of the supreme court of Alberta arguing to have his lordship dissolve an injunction and thereby permit the city council to give away what was equivalent to a gas franchise after the people to all intents and purposes, had voted against it. His lordship remarked that while it might be true, as contended, that it would be in the best interests of the city of Edmonton, that this franchise agreement be entered into, yet, "if the people chose to be poorly governed, that was their privilege."

Whether the details of the various elective commission government city

charters are adjusted to best suit the individual conditions and whether the machinery is operating with the minimum amount of friction, is not material. The principle remains that the people are given direct control of the men who are the administrators. With the initiative, the referendum and the recall, there is no time when the public servants are not subject to the dictates of the people. Whether the people do, or do not, know what is best for them at all times, is immaterial. The public official is supposed to be the public servant and the servant must take his orders from his master. If the master errs, the master pays the penalty.

The people of Edmonton will vote on an elective commission government charter this fall. We have just about come to the conclusion on in the great northwest that we can elect city commissioners as good, or a little better, than any city council will appoint them; and we are certain that we will give them a better chance to do their work than has been afforded them by any city council to date, the present notwithstanding.

Some American cities are running to seed over the business manager plan of municipal government. I would merely say in passing that this system might be more or less successful on this continent if the city manager were permitted to manage.

EDMONTON PACKING HOUSES PREPARING FOR BIG BUSINESS

Swift Canadian Ready to Handle 10,000 Hogs a Week—Others Also Preparing.

From the first of November to early next spring, the number of hogs shipped to the packing houses will increase in large numbers those sent during the earlier months of the year, and with this end in view, the Swift-Canadian company is now prepared to handle 10,000 hogs per week at its plant in Edmonton. Likewise have P. Burns and company and the Canner plant made provisions for increased output this year. Hog raising in Alberta is increasing as no other branch of the live stock business. It is the intention of the Swift-Canadian people to make a bid for the dry salt meat business that will result from the present war. As yet no increase in business has been noted in the west, but it is thought this will come later. It is said that Chicago packing houses have received orders sufficient to keep their plants working full time for one year. This applies more to canned meats, a branch of the packing business not yet started in the Edmonton plants.

Montreal Firemen Enlist
Montreal, Oct. 28.—Chief Tremblay of the fire department, is worried at the depletion of the ranks of his force by the war. Nineteen firemen went out with the first Canadian contingent, and three more have since enlisted with his sanction and will go with the second contingent.

THE GREATEST TRAGEDY OF ALL TIME.

The London Economist, which should have some reasonably accurate knowledge upon which to base an estimate, calculates that the resources of Germany, at the present rate of exhaustion, will be wiped out in six months from the declaration of war, which means that in March next she will have burned up her reserves of supplies of food, horses, money, gasoline and all the necessities of a campaign, and will be compelled to carry the war from that date by hand-to-mouth and grab-all methods in the commissariat department. The best available estimate of the losses in men on the German side indicate that something more than a million—possibly a million and a quarter—of the kaiser's army have been either killed, wounded, incapacitated by sickness or captured, reducing the extreme limit of six million men which Germany had available at the opening of the campaign by at least one-sixth in less than three months. Berlin now takes the view that the war is to be a long war, quite evidently relinquishing the idea that it was to be a triumphal procession, first into France and then into Russia.

In the meantime two enormous battle lines besiege Germany on the east and on the west. At least four million and a half Germans are on these two fronts. They make violent assaults, but meet insuperable resistance. From day to day, in different sections of the map, divisions of the German front are pressed forward at tremendous sacrifice, but those who go forward do not come back. They are wiped out and the line recedes a little toward Berlin. Among the sand dunes and ditches of Flanders battlefields are thrown into positions where the war is evidently opened for them to arrive at the place selected as a shambles, as, for instance, the Yser canal, which the Germans crossed five times, only to see each division successively slaughtered and the way opened up for the next to come.

In thousands and tens of thousands every day Germany is thus turning up her power of resistance. Days, weeks and months pass, and still the two great battles go on with varying fortunes, but a great sameness about it. Time fights on the side of the allies and Joffre is a conservator of human life. With the least possible risk and minimum of loss to the allies, each day closes with a few thousand less men in the German army to offer resistance when the great forward movement is finally launched and less resources behind those men. As a mathematical certainty the time must come when there will be not enough of the kaiser's legions left to offer resistance: when the allied armies will swarm into Germany, sweeping before them the remnant of the greatest fighting machine of all ages.

The kaiser's war plan, by which he was going to conquer the world, promises to finish in the killing of all the men in Germany. The world is witnessing the greatest tragedy of all time, a tragedy which will take the laughter and fun out of more than half the world.

CITY SALVATION, ACCORDING TO SAINT PAUL.

St. Paul, Minnesota, proudly claims to have found a broad, safe way out of municipal "money troubles" and an equally infallible method for sinking the spur of self-interest into the flank of a lethargic citizenship.

"Ten-dollar bonds" is the answer. Sold every day in the week, except Sunday, over the broad counter in the treasurer's office at the city hall! No favorites! First come, first served! Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded!

Since July 20, 1913, when the great idea blossomed, over one million dollars' worth of the $10 slips have been sold to the people. The real people; newsmen, clerks, day laborers, struggling professional men—all that vast army of workers that lives in fear of a rainy day—make up the daily stream that flows in and out the doors of Treasurer Farnsworth's "store."

The thing is simplicity itself. Any one able to read print can understand it. The "bonds," in reality, are participating certificates representing a $10 interest in a bond. They bear four per cent. interest, payable on the second day of January and July each year, and can be bought or cashed in any month or any minute. Over the counter hangs a great chart that shows to a penny just what a certificate is worth each day. A buyer puts down his $10 and as many cents as the accrued interest demands. When he sells he collects his principal and interest to date. The chart kills the mystery of bookkeeping absolutely.

It is difficult to tell which party to the arrangement is more delighted—the people or St. Paul. The city, for instance, is no longer forced to cool its heels in the antechambers of the bond-dealers or to sell securities below par. The individual investor supplies an insatiable market, and, best of all, the interest that used to go far, far away now stays at home.—Everybody's.

CORRESPONDENCE

The publishers of the Edmonton Capital feel it necessary to explain that they take no responsibility for the views in letters sent to the editor. Letters will not be printed unless name and address are given for publication.

"AN AWFUL TRAGEDY"

To the editor of the Capital:—It appears that from the most remote history, superstitious man has been unwilling to tolerate from his fellow-beings, conflicting, political and religious ideas. The habits, customs, and manners he formed in his uncivilized state have been almost impossible to displace. They have clung to him like a leech, holding him spell-bound and at many periods of his career have caused him to become bereft of all reason and sense of justice, giving way to pillage and murder, destroying all those who opposed him.

Hence in Europe an awful tragedy is being played that has its origin away back in pre-historic ages and really all those who are engaged in that terrible world tragedy are more to be pitied than censured; we hope it may speedily be brought to an end. However, it appears that at the present stage of the tragic drama, no mortal has power to conclude the last act—dropping the curtain, hiding from view of the horror-stricken world, the forms of the mangled and bleeding actors.

Throughout the civilized world men, women and children are continually praying to the great God of all, beseeching him to intervene. We sincerely hope that their prayers may not be in vain.

Now, I am not a praying man, but however, I would love to see every just prayer answered.

It is claimed that back in remote ages, an all-wise, all-powerful and merciful God took a hand in the bloody butcheries of war, in which he assisted armies to exterminate man, women and innocent children from the face of the earth.

I tell you that it is not true, and I challenge any man in the civilized world who thinks I am wrong, to battle through the press intellectually and manfully upon this subject.

Now, before the humble carpenter of Nazareth, his code of morals, mainly conduct and unselfish morality, I stand in reverent and silent admiration.

It should be unthinkable that after two thousand years of Christianity, which has advocated the philosophy of non-resistance to evil, Christian nations should be plunged into a horrible, destructive war. If the humble carpenter were living today, he would say: "He said: 'Who shall not kill—Rise up against him, go and slay him.' I am sure that if he were living in this world today, one thing he would say is: 'Give woman the franchise in every nation of the earth, that she may have equal power with men to justly shape the destiny of the world, and to say that women are to be used as targets for great and murderous machinery of war.'"

It is very certain that woman is more sympathetic than man; of finer nature and not so war-like. Male in all animal life are more vicious than females. So it is with all domestic animals as well as with wild beasts that roam the jungles.

The intelligence of woman is equal to that of man, and that of she surpasses him. There will be more women in heaven than men. What awful crimes have been committed by men in the name of Christianity! If our bible be true, what an enormous crowd of souls—mostly billions—with church members the Lord will have to turn over to the devil in the judgment day.

CRUISER EMDEN DOES DAMAGE AT PENANG

Singapore, Oct. 30.—Reports received here from Hong Kong give some detail of the German cruiser Emden's operations at Penang. It appears she entered the south channel there on Wednesday and that the Russian cruiser Jermuch was found anchored in the harbor repairing her machinery. After torpedoing and sinking the Russian cruiser, the Emden left by the north channel where she met the French destroyer which she sank also.

Chicago Wheat Goes Up.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Hostilities between Turkey and Russia caused a general dash today to the buying side of the wheat market here. As a result prices moved as much as 2½¢ a bushel above last night's level. May wheat touching $1.22 ½ against $1.19 of previous close.

JUDGE NULLIFIES LAND SALE MADE WITH HALF-BREED

Holds that Price was Far Too Small and Vendor Ignorant of Value.

An important judgment handed down in the supreme court by Justice Scott, is that whereby Cassimir Gladu, a half-breed homesteader, of Grouard, receives his land back after having sold it to the Edmonton Land company for a sum which was a mere fraction of its real value. This homestead was entered upon by Gladu in March, 1912, and in that year negotiations were opened between him and the land company for its purchase. The company paid Gladu $2,000 for the land and also bought the half-breed scrip, by which means the title of the homestead was secured. The value of the land, as shown in the evidence is in the neighborhood of $25,000 and the judge held that the plaintiff Gladu had been paid too little for his land. Gladu had begun action to annul the sale of the land company. The Justice states that he considered the payment for the land grossly inadequate and held that the plaintiff Gladu being an ignorant half-breed was ignorant of the value of the property and was dealing with an agent who was aware of the value and better able to deal with such matters than was Gladu.

GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS SCHEME TO BRING 1,000 BELGIANS TO EDMONTON

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—The government has under consideration the recommendation in Canada of 1,000 Belgian refugees. It is contemplated that these men could be absorbed easily throughout the dominion and it is said that farmers find it impossible to get assistance, despite the number of unemployed in the cities. It is believed that the thousands of Belgians who are nearly all of the farming class could be placed economically on Canadian farms and will be welcomed. The details of the suggested scheme have not yet been worked out.

TURKEY STARTS OUT BY SINKING RUSSIAN BOAT

Bordeaux, Oct. 30.—It was announced officially here today that two Turkish torpedo destroyers entered the Port of Odessa, on the Black sea yesterday, and sank a Russian gunboat. They also inflicted damage on the French liner Portusol.

Demands Release Civilians

Berlin, Oct. 30.—Germany has notified Great Britain through Jax Gerard the American ambassador in Berlin, that if the German civilians in England, excepting those against whom there is ground for suspicion, are not liberated by November 15, all British subjects in Germany will be similarly arrested. The feeble on this subject in Berlin is high.

Court Martial in London

London, Oct. 30.—A court martial, the first convened in England for many generations, met today under the presidency of Lord Chelmsford, at the hall, in the shadow of Westminster Abbey, for the trial of Carl Hans Lody, alias Charles A. Dingle, on the charge of espionage.

WALTER JOHNSON STATES HE HAS NOT SIGNED UP WITH FEDERAL LEAGUERS

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Talking over the long distance yesterday afternoon from Port Smith, Ark., to a reporter in the Washington Americans, said this Federal league contract to play in St. Louis. He admitted that negotiations were taking place. Dan Johnson, president of the American league said that if Johnson jumped, the case would be contested in the courts. The American league, he said, had an option on the twirlers service and Johnson had accepted money for it, he added.

What the Theater Press Agents Say

"PEG 'O MY HEART"

A WESTERN PRODUCTION.
On Thursday, November 5, the Empire theater will have J. Hartley Mann's delightful comedy of youth, "Peg 'O My Heart," in which Oliver Edwards is sending her his newest and youngest leading lady, Marion Dentler, to direct the name part.

The scenes of the play are laid in a well-known summer colony in England and home of the Chichesters. There are a proud, unattractive family and have accepted the responsibility of educating Peg, an unknown niece, for no other reason than the urgent need of the income that is offered.

Peg, on the other hand, is a jolly, homesick girl with a fascinating tongue. She has been raised by her white-haired father, and when she arrives in the Chichester home, her Irish god, Michael, she shocks the family first by her appearance and then by her manner. Her unorthodox life with the modes of living—her ready wit and her curious antics—cause many humorous situations throughout the play.

The daughter, Ethel, is having a love affair with a man in Ireland who is married. He has also been making love to Peg, but she repulses him, making friends only with an old friend of the family, Jerry, as she calls him. Peg is successful in preventing an engagement between Ethel and Brent, and is then about to leave the Chichester home when it is learned that Jerry is a selfish, unscrupulous man who has been Peg in his arms, tells him, when her father hears the news, he writes a letter telling him to bring $2,000 to a certain house and the child will be returned. He sends the child with the money to get the child and arrest the kidnapper. The detective finds the kidnapper is a woman who has been wronged by Kellogg and that if Kellogg does not come and square up with her, she will denounce him to the opposition party and ruin his career. The detective, who hopes to be appointed chief of police if Kellogg is elected, starts to go and get Kellogg. He finds Kellogg, who is a man of great wealth, and he draws a gun; they struggle—she obtains the gun and forces him to go after Kellogg. The fast action with the melodramatic situations and good comedy make it one of the best sketches possible to conceive.

"PEG 'O MY HEART"

The different road companies playing this remarkable success, have broken so many records, that the United States and Canada that it would require entirely too much space to mention the many triumphs, wherever a capacity house will greet Peg on her arrival in this city.

Peg was produced by Mr. Orlanorco, a western producer, with up to date three years ago, was unknown to the Chichesters, but his wonderful production of the Hawaiian drama, "The Bird of Paradise," and "Peg 'O My Heart," Mr. Orlanorco's name now is as well known to theatre-goers as that of Klav & Erianger, Charles Frohman and other well-known producers, who the theatre world rely to furnish them with the best plays.

PLAYLET TO CHALLENGE HEADLINER AT PANTAGES

One of the strongest features of the offering at Pantages theater next week is a comedy dramatic playlet, entitled "The Kidnapper." It is presented by Winifred Sherburne and Jack Montanary and is of singular dramatic power. Although not booked as the feature attraction, it will undoubtedly vie with the Imperial Grand Opera company for premier honors. A short synopsis of the playlet follows:

Jim Kellogg, a successful business man, his wife and child are living in Chicago. He has been nominated for mayor in the independent party ticket. While the campaign is being hotly fought, Kellogg's child is kidnapped. He receives a letter telling him to bring $2,000 to a certain house and the child will be returned. He sends the child with the money to get the child and arrest the kidnapper. The detective finds the kidnapper is a woman who has been wronged by Kellogg and that if Kellogg does not come and square up with her, she will denounce him to the opposition party and ruin his career. The detective, who hopes to be appointed chief of police if Kellogg is elected, starts to go and get Kellogg. He finds Kellogg, who is a man of great wealth, and he draws a gun; they struggle—she obtains the gun and forces him to go after Kellogg. The fast action with the melodramatic situations and good comedy make it one of the best sketches possible to conceive.

GERMAN BOMBS DROP AMONG WOMEN KILLING AND WOUNDING MANY

North France, Oct. 30.—Two German aeroplanes flew over the north of France Wednesday and dropped two bombs at Bethune. The first did not explode, but the second fell among a group of women in the market place, 18 being killed and 40 wounded. A correspondent telegraphed that he was walking near the Dunkirk town hall on Wednesday when two bombs, dropped by a Taube, fell within 50 yards. One woman and a child of ten years were killed. Seven or eight French aeroplanes chased the Taube with unknown results.

Montreal "Dead Broke"

Montreal, Oct. 30.—This city is "dead broke" and cannot undertake any new work until next year, then only a small amount, says a report made by the financial officers of the municipality this morning. The city began the year with a borrowing power of $12,000,000. Of this sum $10,000,000 has already been spent with $150,000 which was on hand, and the remainder has been appropriated for work soon to be completed. Next year the city's borrowing power will be limited to about $2,000,000. The only way money can be obtained for any work is to take it from some present appropriation.

BRITISH INFORM TURKS THAT CROSSING FRONTIER WILL MEAN MORE WAR

Constantinople (via London), Oct. 30.—In anticipation of the possible invasion of Egyptian territory British ambassador, Malet, after long and strenuous work, has been instructed by his government, has plainly informed the grand vizier that to make good the frontier of the British mean war with the entire power. It is understood that the embassies of the allied powers, having a rapid, have already made the necessary arrangements for the departure of the diplomatic representatives.

NORTH SEA MINES DO MUCH DAMAGE

Trawlers, Fishing Boats and Whales are Not Immune From Operations.

Grimsby, Eng. (via London), Oct. 30.—The trawler Rosetta struck a mine on the east coast Thursday afternoon and was sunk. Her captain and chief mate are missing. Eight survivors from the crew have been landed at Shields.

The Ramsgate fishing boat Orkney was sunk Wednesday and sank. A sister boat nearby cruised about in the vicinity for several hours in a vain search for the fishing boat's crew of three men.

The Swedish lumber steamer Blauw was wrecked on a reef during an eastern gale last night near Ratay Head in Aberdeenshire, Scotland. The crew of 17 were rescued by life savers.

A white killed by a mine drifted ashore at Margate today.

London, Oct. 30.—A despatch from Funchal, Holland, to the Daily News, says:

"An examination of the map of the North sea, with known mine areas marked, makes one wonder that any mariner dares sail. The Germans, English and Dutch all have been active in mine laying during the past few weeks and as a result the sea is a veritable powder magazine."

"The Germans are sending out motor boats to patrol the coast which they occupy. These patrol boats are also towing mines wherever they are likely to be used. The motor boats were brought overland from the Baltic."

London, Oct. 30.—The newspapers continue to urge upon the admiralty the desirability of the entire closing of the North sea in order to prevent the alleged action of the Germans in sending out mine layers in the guise of peaceful neutral trading vessels. In this connection the Times says:

"We refer again to the recurring discovery of mines off the main route between Liverpool and America. There is an increasing conviction that this danger will continue to grow and that the only remedy is the closing of the North sea to neutral maritime traffic."

"The flags of neutrals have been persistently abused and we can take no risks with the fortunes of the empire and the race at stake."

John Bull, secretary of the patriotic fund, has written Mr. G. M. Anderson, Coroner to speak at a meeting in the interests of the patriotic fund.

INDIAN COMPANY FOR SECOND CONTINGENT

Brandon, Ont. Oct. 30.—The six nation Indians will furnish a company of 120 officers and men, all redskins, for the second contingent. They will march at Cayuga at once. Captain Geo. Smith will assume command. Other officers are not yet chosen. The company is also for the Indian mode of dress. Major-General Leasard, Toronto, who asked that the Indians, on account of their rebellion to the crown, should send a separate and distinct unit.

CASCARETS KEEP BOWELS REGULAR AND CURE COLDS

No headache, sour stomach, bad cold or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box. Colds—also for the head or any part of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Cascarets tonight and you will wake up with a clear head and no doubt you will wonder what became of your cold, Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach; remove the sour, undigested food and foot cases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They rely on Cascarets and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little systems.

Weather Grand, Track First Class and Everything in Good Shape for Sport of Kings—Ladies Free and Gentlemen 50 Cents—Members of Fast Ones Arriving from 84-Day Vancouver Meet—Program Should Please Patrons.

There is more than one reason why the autumn race meet at the exhibition grounds Saturday and Sunday should be exceedingly well patronized—and every indication points to such a happy occurrence.

In the first place there is the weather. Alberta has absolutely the finest autumn climate in the world, bar none, and this month has been just a little better than the average. If it keeps up four more days racing enthusiasts will enjoy weather that makes mere living a joy as they watch the pastime of kings on a fast track. The track, in fact, has been made wish perfect during the past few weeks, and it would not be surprising to see some records made.

Secondly, a percentage of the proceeds will be given to the patriotic fund, and if the people in general show half as much interest as the directors of the Edmonton Turf club, the patriotic fund association will smile heartily when the little donation is made.

And, again, there's the horses themselves, a combination of circumstances having arisen whereby good horses from far and near will be here to delight the patrons of this sport. The Minors Park (Vancouver) meet has just closed, and many of the horses will stop here on their way from there east. One car of those came up on the C. P. R. from Calgary Thursday. They were immediately taken to the stables at the exhibition grounds, although, since they came from the coast, where they took place in an 84-day meet, they will not need lengthy conditioning.

Among the horses to participate will be the following:

Winney and Prince Joe owned by Gorman and Mount; Dr. H. P. and The Jack, the property of J. W. Hudson; Jon, McDonald, Renfro, the Great,

OTHER MANAGERS TO COPY GEORGE STALLINGS' METHOD

Miracle Manager Introduced Several Innovations Which May Be Followed.

Big league managers have very little regard for averages, either batting or fielding. This was strikingly illustrated in a recent battle between the Giants and the Cubs. Larry Doyle, who was hitting .725, was at bat, but Hank O'Day, rather than let him get a chance at the bat, had him in base in order to get at Burns. Now, Burns was hitting .311 and led all the Giants except Grant. Moreover, he had been one of the best men of the league in driving home runs. O'Day's scheme went through all right for Burns flied out. But of course it is possible that Doyle might have done the same thing. It's quite likely that many of the big league managers will adopt the Stallings method of varying the attack according to what sort of a pitcher is working for the opposition. Stallings has five regular outfielders—Cathery, Whitted, Cathery, Mann and Mann. And yet only one of the five can be counted as a regular. That's Whitted, who is the only one who can field and holds down the job no matter whether the opposition plays a left-handed or a right-handed pitcher. If the other side is a right-handed pitcher, twirler Stallings uses Moran, Connolly and Whitted. If a southpaw goes against the Braves, Stallings makes an immediate shift, replacing Connolly and Moran, who are left-handed hitters, with Mann and Cathery, who bat from the other side of the plate. When Stallings first introduced the plan the other managers scoffed at it. During the early part of the season it didn't seem to work out to great advantage. Some thought it was because the line was at fault but it wasn't. It was because Stallings didn't have exactly the right kind of outfielders to carry out the scheme. When he secured Cathery and Whitted from St. Louis and later got Moran from Cincinnati, he had the right combination.

Stallings' success since then attracted the attention of all the other big league managers. Those who were prone to scoff at first changed their attitude. They studied the results of the Stallings mode of attack, and they discovered the results were beneficial to the Braves. It is probable, too, that some of the managers will adopt the other Stallings innovation—that of using only three regular pitchers, instead of four, as was the universal custom for many years until Stallings came along and established the precedent. Stallings, when putting his every-third-day pitching scheme into operation, said that he was sure that it wouldn't harm the pitcher. He said that working a pitcher every third day would keep his arm in better shape than working him every fourth day. Other managers took the plan. They said it would wreck the pitcher's arm. Did it?

TO DEFEND TITLE, REGINA WILL PLAY WINNIPEG SATURDAY

Saskatchewan Champions Ready for Trial Game—Team Well Balanced

WEIGHT ON LINE WHILE BACKS HAVE THE SPEED Not Much Money is Offered in Manitoba Capital, but Team is Fast.

Regina, Oct. 30.—The champions who will clash with the Rowing club at Winnipeg, Saturday, defending the title of Western Canada hockey champions which they have held for two years are by no means a team of heavyweights. Their average weight, however, is very far below the 160 pounds. The major bulk of the weight is in the forward line, where it ought to be, the nine front line men averaging 175 pounds. Big Tiny Styles, who plays at right inside wing, is the heavyweight of the team, weighing 215 pounds. Styles has enlisted with Regina's contingent in the capacity of forward, but he is not expected to play Saturday. The desired permission has been obtained, however, and Styles will journey to Winnipeg with the team tomorrow night. The following is the age and weight of the Regina champions:

Name	Age	Weight
Taylor, L.O.W.	21	150
Murphy, L.M.W.	25	158
Styles, L.T.W.	23	215
Liquarist, L.S.	29	178
Abbott, C.S.	22	172
Isako, R.R.	24	245
Finnegan, I.W.	26	165
Norther, R.M.W.	26	162
Otto, I.O.W.	23	164
Townsend, F.W.	28	148
Milnes, G.H.	24	145
Wilson, L.H.	22	140
Rogers, C.H.	26	160
Longway, J.	29	140

Interest at the Reg. Winnipeg, Oct. 30.—That the visit of the speedy Regina hockey champions to oppose the Rowing club for the Western Canada championship here Saturday will do a lot to popularize the game in Winnipeg is the feeling of many of the local officials.

Not since the visit of the Hamilton Tigers to Winnipeg last year has there been the promise of such a large gathering at a hockey game as is the outlook for this championship contest.

The backers of the Regina team, who took away so much of the Rowing club money when they first came here three years ago and surprised the sporting population of the West by beating the Rowing club stalwarts right on their own ground, will not find so many greenbacks at their disposal this time. Since that memorable game Regina has earned quite a reputation as a football center and the champions will no doubt enter the game prime favorites. But this year's season, as a pretty fast aggregation, composed of a bunch of hard, though not very brilliant workers, and playing their own game, should prove somewhat of an obstacle to any team. Captain Bennett, a former Chicago University player, is judged to be just about the brains and best kicker that Winnipeg has had in its midst for several years, and this alone should bother the burlly visitors. Only four of the team which was beaten at Regina last year will be in the game, but it is doubtful if the team is any stronger on paper but they have an advantage of playing a much more open game.

W. J. McNAMARA AND YOUNG AT BILLIARDS: KING DEFEATS SHARP

Arthur King and Geo Sharp played fine billiards in their prize off of the three cushion tie at the Empire Billiard hall last night. The game was the best yet played and was close all the way. There was never more than five points difference in the score. First one was in the lead then the other. It looked like Sharp's game until King made two, and went out leaving Sharp to the forty-ninth ball after which the game point by a hairs breadth, but not playing hard enough.

The game tonight was a straight rail tournament will be between W. J. McNamara and Geo Young. This should be a good close game.

Last night's score—King, 60; High runs, 3-3. Sharp, 40; high runs, 3-3. Referee, Kelly.

"1.50" TROTTER MAY APPEAR IN NEXT SIX YEARS

Western Genius Has Devised New Sulky Which is Expected to Help Lower Records.

This year's smashing of all harness race records by both pacers and trotters has brought to the front the inventor with schemes to still further reduce track records by improved sulky. It is an exact repetition of what happened just after Maud S., Palo Alto, Smuggler and other horses of the day knocked all previous track records to pieces while hitted to the old-fashioned and clumsy high-wheeled sulky.

Horsemen will remember that it was this smashing of records that brought out the present low-slung, pneumatic-tired sulky, which has enabled the harness horses to make the old high-wheeled sulky records look like the ambling of an ox-cart. With the present vehicle a horse that cannot equal or beat the record of Maud S., 2:08 3/4, made in 1884—is hardly considered worth bothering about, except in the period of development.

Now a western genius has devised a sulky which is expected to enable the harness horse to lower his records by as many seconds as has been done with the spider-weblike rubber-tired sulky of today. This new device has a third wheel in the rear of the two now used and placed midway between them, like the arrangement of a bicycle. The driver's seat is placed close to and partly over the added wheel, the whole framework of the lightest and stiffest of steel wire.

It is said for this new sulky that it gives the horse greater freedom of action, due to the fact that there is less swerving of the sulky in rounding the track turns, and a steadiness of seat that tends to stop the natural tendency of the horse to "break" in his stride when a swerving sulky interferes with his freedom of action. The machine is being tried out in the Northwest, and horsemen who have ridden on it have been able to cut a couple of seconds from the records of the horses they have handled in the track heats in which it has been used.

CIVICS READY FOR SATURDAY'S RUGBY BATTLE WITH UNIVERSITY

Last Strenuous Workout Thursday Night Against Victoria High School—Much Improvement in All Departments Shown—New Players Will Baffle Students—First Inter-city Game Likely to Be Played Here November 7.—Saturday's Game Starts Sharp at 3 O'clock.

When theVarsity rugby team clash day last, will be the lineup to meet the Civics tomorrow.

In preparation for their game with Edmonton, the Calgary Tigers are practicing daily and reports lead one to believe they have a first-class outfit. The first game of the home and home series will be in Edmonton on November 7.

Saturday's game between Civics and Varsity will commence at 3 o'clock, with Messrs. Hardisty and Lally handling affairs. A large attendance is assured in spite of the counter-attraction of horse racing at the exhibition grounds.

The high school team naturally were no match for the Civics but gave the seniors something to work for and the result was a very one-sided score.

The high school team showed that they have some promising young fellows in their lineup who in a year or two will be right along in the better teams. Jesse Jones, the popular colored sprinter of the school team, ran through the lines once or twice and made classy runs.

The Civics were under the guardianship of Coach White and in the later minutes of the evening some new trick and shift plays were gone through with perfection. Unlike Whitelaw showed up well last night and showed speed behind the line when Iasmussen held out the ball. Tommy Doyle was also in the line with sensational runs. The Civics showed the benefits of recent practice and appear to be in trim to battle through the four quarters of Saturday's contest with the students. During the last week special attention has been paid to the tackling methods of the Civics and more effective work along this line may be expected from the players tomorrow. Varsity's star, Parsons will be carefully watched as his splendid work in last week's game turned the tide of victory to the students.

Light workouts are being indulged in Friday afternoon by both teams and special practice will be rehearsed. Civics lineup for Saturday will be somewhat changed from last week, while it is believed that the team that worked the second half for the students on Saturday

Love Was Not Blind to This Young Austrian in Court

An interesting case concluded in the supreme court before Justice Hyndman was the result of a marriage for wealth and property rather than love. The plaintiff in the case was Knott Petreger, an Austrian, and the defendant, Sylvester Leinweber. Both parties are Austrians. In 1908 the plaintiff Petreger, with his family and relatives, arrived in Alberta and took up homesteads near Vegreville. One whole section was taken up between them and in due course the farms became valuable as improvements were put on.

In 1909 the plaintiff's son died, leaving a wife, Anna, to mourn his loss. Shortly afterwards there appeared on the scene, Sylvester Leinweber, who proposed to and married the widow, Anna. An agreement had been drawn up between the aged Knott Petreger and the young woman and this agreement it was set forth that when the young Sylvester married Anna, he would be given 80 acres of the farm belonging to Anna's father. In court the aged father said that the agreement also called for himself and his wife being kept by Sylvester until their death. But Sylvester did not apparently agree that such were the conditions of the agreement and some time ago turned the old folks out of the house and home. He is now in the United States. Knott Petreger raised objections and took legal proceedings to recover the 80 acres given to Sylvester at the time of his marriage. The court, however, upheld the younger man and allowed him to retain his 80 acres. The action to recover the land was dismissed with costs. The plaintiff was represented by J. M. Macdonald, of Robertson, Macdonald and Windler, and the defendant by Allan Harris of Kinsing and Harris.

Some amusing evidence was brought out during the hearing of the case. "When you married Anna did you marry her just for the land?" asked Mr. Macdonald of Sylvester. "Yes," answered the young man. "Did you have any regard for the widow herself?" "Oh, no," was the reply.

EDMONTON IN BRIEF

The yields of grain in the Clover Bar district are above the average. P. Oswald of Clover Bar has just finished threshing 26,000 bushels of wheat from 200 acres of Marquette wheat which yielded 1,225 bushels, or nearly 60 bushels to the acre. In 1885 Mr. Oswald harvested 25 bushels of Red 716 to the acre on a portion of his farm, and the same year had a yield of 114 bushels of oats to the acre.

Alex Oliver and C. Harkness, residents of the south side were fined $10 and $5.50 costs each, in the south side police court for failing to register dogs. Oliver was charged with keeping a dog in a public place. The dog was named "Buster" and was a pointer. Harkness was charged with keeping a dog in a public place. The dog was named "Buster" and was a pointer.

Detectors of the police department were busy Thursday night. Mrs. C. Jones, of 2565 Elizabeth street, was arrested on a charge of stealing. She is also charged with keeping a disorderly house. Mrs. Jones has been in trouble before and she is now in the hands of the police. William James was also arrested in connection with the robbery.

Rev. F. D. Roxburgh was conducted Thursday night as pastor of McQueen, Emerson and Beverly churches. The ceremony took place at McQueen Presbyterian church and many were present. Rev. Mr. McQueen, after whom the church was named, conducted the inflection ceremony and Rev. James Wierle, of Leamington, preached the sermon. A special music was rendered by Mrs. John Hynes, of McQueen choir and by the fine large orchestra.

Addresses were given by Rev. J. C. Dicks and Rev. R. M. Matheson, of Nanaimo. Refreshments were served by the ladies of McQueen church. A feature of the evening was the presentation to McQueen church of a handsome pulpit bible and hymn book. Among other members of the Presbytery present were the moderator, Rev. Dr. C. Campbell; Rev. T. T. Kellicie and Rev. Woods.

Persons sending checks to the national or relief fund are asked to make sure that the check is made out to the proper party, namely, F. P. Fisher, the treasurer of the fund. Some trouble and confusion has been caused by this not being done. All checks should be made payable to Mr. Fisher and the amount will be apportioned as the donors desire.

The supreme court this morning, before Justice Irvine, C. P. Stevens, charged with the theft of three cows and 40 steel traps, was acquitted. The case took up the great part of the forenoon. A. A. Mackay appeared for the defence and E. B. Cogswell for the crown.

William H. James and Mrs. Jones, arrested Thursday night on a charge of theft and the latter on a charge of keeping a disorderly house, were released in police court Friday morning and were remanded till Saturday. Both should not go to jail. They were $500 each were required as bail for each.

More Reserves Called

Geneva, Switzerland (via Paris) Oct. 29.—A dispatch from Basel received here says that the German troops are suffering from hunger and cold. The dispatch says also that Germany has called upon the 1914 class of reserves, ranging from 17 to 40 years of age, numbers at least 180,000 men. According to the Swiss and French military critics no serious attack between Belgium and Verdun is to be feared until the battle in Flanders is settled.

Ireland Survivor Killed

London, Oct. 29.—Lieut. C. L. C. Fowles-Lyon, of the Black Watch, who was killed in action last Friday, aged 23 years, was one of the Empress of Ireland survivors. He was a nephew of the Earl of Strathmore, and was twice wounded since proceeding to the front in the middle of September.

Port Au Prince Revolt

Washington, Oct. 29.—President Zamboni of Haiti has been obliged to quit his post to escape to the United States on a Dutch vessel, according to a report from the American legation here. Officially interpreted this as a meaning that the rebels are in complete control of Port Au Prince.

Flood Out Germans

Paris, Oct. 30.—The official announcement, given out in Paris this afternoon, says that the forces of the enemy which have crossed the river Yser have been compelled to withdraw by reason of inundations of the low country brought about by the Belgian army.

Warlike Action

Washington, Oct. 30.—The Russian embassy today received word from its foreign office at Petrograd that Turkestan had taken warlike action toward Russia. The dispatch did not give any details, nor did it state whether the action was on land or sea.

To Banquet Brandon Men

Brandon, Oct. 30.—The 125 men leaving here Sunday for the Winnipeg train to the front will be banqueted by the city tomorrow night. Mayor Hughes will preside.
